News

- This week's cover is some splendid plastic soldier box art – Polish Winged Hussars. yes I know they are out of period but very pretty 😊
- Jay mentioned last night that he'd like to generate a bit of (FoG) 25mm play and to make it easy he suggested just using the Starter armies (unchanged). This all sounds like a fun change and all eligible games would be Club leaguers. Games organised through the usual process.

Wargames Agony Aunt

- Concerned of Surrey has written in saying he has concerns about his lance drooping!
- Well concerned, this is either an age thing or you have been bashing it too much. In either case treat it gently and you may get a few years more use out of it.

About Last Night .....

- Well 3 league games last night: Martin's Dominate Romans had the worst end of Jason's Classical Indians; my Moldavians lost against Ray's Early Sarmatians (my Polish allies have been sent back to Poland with a faulty sticker on them 😊); and Terry's Sassanids got the better of Steve's Samanids. Also Nik gave Stephen a starter game with FoG (Dominate Romans v Sassanids) – be warned Stephen has read the rules 😊
- All this means that Jason leaps into 1st, Graham drops to 2nd and Terry (inevitably) replaces me in 3rd. All to play for.
